COAST LEAGUE

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Coast league baseball is still running in circles, with the teams shifting swiftly up and down the percentage column. Koestner, the big Tiger hurler was responsible for the defeat of the locals by a strong application of his famous surge ball. Manager Hap Hogan downed the mask and caught for his team. Douglass and Sepulveda, two new men, contested the first three innings at Frisco where Portland took the day's game, two to one. The Senators suffered the first blank of the season when Killaly let them have seven hits and his support held the home team down to a zero mark at the pan.

BOSTON VS. JOE WOOD.

Smoky One Helps Collegians Against his Own Team.

CHAMPAIGN, April 5.—The Boston Americans defeated the University of Illinois eleven to two with Joe Wood pitching part of the game for the collegians. Wood who was loaned to the university team was a puzzle to his team-mates and helped by scoring a home run.

BROOKLYN BEATS CHANCES

Bran New Home of Superbas is Tried Out With Success.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
BROOKLYN, April 5.—Ebbetsfield, the new seven hundred and fifty thousand dollar home of the Brooklyn Nationals was formally opened today with a game won by the home team from the New York Americans by three to two. Miss Genevieve Ebbets, the youngest daughter of the Brooklyn club owner, tossed out the first ball put in play. Frank Chance was in great form. Hal Chase made his big league debut as second baseman but had little to do in the field.

Home runs by Stengel and Daubert gave Brooklyn a two to nothing lead. In the ninth, with Allen pitching, the visitors tied the score on a pass, two hits and a wild throw. Smith's hit scored the winning run for Brooklyn.

TIE IS SEASON RECORD

Game Goes 2-2 in Eighteen Spaces Then Darkness Stops Play.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
PHILADELPHIA, April 5.—The local Americans and Nationals today played the longest inter-league baseball game in the history of the two major leagues. The contest was called in the eighteenth on account of darkness. The score was 2 to 2. Brown, the Athletics young right-hander pitched the entire game and was hit safely but thirteen times while the Phillies used Alexander for five innings, Chalmers for two and Brennan for eleven. They allowed the former world's champions a total of only ten hits.

The Americans got the jump on the local rivals, scoring their only two runs in the first inning. The Phillies made two tallies in the ninth.

thirty thousand dollars a year. This fiscal year the income will reach ninety-six thousand dollars, which is in keeping with the city's growth.

"The inception of the present building came through a visit here by a congressional irrigation committee in 1904. Two of its members, Representatives Minor and Adams, were on the house, buildings and grounds committee of congress. They brought up the subject of a building, were shown the advisability of it and so in the next

All the World
Loves a Lover

Everybody likes to see "that fine young couple" start housekeeping in the nicest kind of a home, furnished with everything that is comfortable, modern and convenient.

This is just to remind the "young couple" themselves that their money will go farthest here, that from the parlor to the kitchen, they will find we have exactly what they want, at a reasonable price.

And then you folks who are figuring on wedding presents for "them," don't you know that there is nothing finer, nothing that will last longer or be more appreciated than a library table, a book case, or a chair or two?

We buy direct from the manufacturers for cash, ship in car lots, are in the low rent district, and so we can and do make the prices. COMPARE.

winter session the "pork barrel" contained an item of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for Phoenix. I understand that Representative Smith tried to secure a much greater appropriation than this, as well as appropriations for buildings at Tucson and Prescott.

Later, thirty thousand dollars was added during Ralph Cameron's term in congress.

"The site was selected by Inspector Windom in 1908 and was bought of the Y. M. C. A. for ten thousand dollars. The contract for the building was awarded to William H. Maxwell, a professional builder of government structures.

"There were the usual delays due to faulty materials, etc. and not until January of this year did the contractor finally turn over the building. In the way of electrical equipment, shades, awnings, screens and furniture, it is not yet complete, but probably will be by July 1st.

"As the furniture and general equipment are not charged to the building appropriation, the total cost will approximate two hundred thousand dollars. As a whole, it is a good building, assuredly a handsome one. The post office is large enough to handle mail for twice the present population and its equipment is of the finest character. It will be much easier to handle the work than heretofore and I feel assured that the public at large will appreciate the added facilities for the transaction of postal business."

present scale of prices is adhered to, as is the intention of the management, it will force the trust to either meet the cut or retire from business.

YIELD OF AMERICAN FARMS.

In sixteen years American farms have yielded produce valued at $105,000,000,000. The 1912 yield is valued at $9,532,000,000.

GLENDALE

President J. M. Hotchkiss of the Glendale board of trade is not looting on the job. Notwithstanding the fact that he is a very busy man with his individual affairs, which just now include the building of a business block, he has found time this week to interest a practical man in the proposition of a brick yard to be established at Glendale. The man is a building contractor now operating at Glendale and the idea strongly appeals to him as a practical solution of the building material question.

It is believed that the proper material for the manufacture of brick can be had here. This should prove a very profitable industry, as immense quantities of brick are now being used, and will continue to be in demand in the future to supply Glendale.

Misses Jessie, Bernice and Mayme

McClughry of Phoenix are visiting with their sister, Mrs. R. F. Stauffer, over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. L. C. Ludden of Nebraska, a brother of Homer Ludden of this place, is visiting with his brother, Mr. Ludden is looking for a location near Glendale.

On Saturday, April 12, the Baptist Ladies' Aid will conduct a cooked food sale at Flock's hall beginning at 10 a. m. This will be an excellent place to get some good things for your Sunday dinner.

Elder Trostle of the Church of the Brethren, who has been conducting services at the church at Glendale has returned to his home in California.

Mr. Holly D. Betts, who for the past two years has been in the Santa Fe ticket office in Los Angeles, has returned to Glendale, and will accept a position with the local Santa Fe.

Today the Glendale high school and the Tempe high school baseball teams will clash. The result of the game will be printed later.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. George W. Protzman entertained at her home with a delightful five-course luncheon. The ladies present were: Mesdames C. T. Tinker, Wilfred Twineh, Gant Watson, J. W. DeFever, LaFayette Myers, J. M. Pearson and George A. Cox. Whist and music were enjoyed after the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wagner of Peoria were in Glendale for a short time today.

SELLS FLOTO SHOWS
GIVE GOOD PERFORMANCES

The Circus Beautiful Makes Splendid Impression on Phoenix Yesterday With Two Performances

Phoenix entertained and was entertained by that trust-busting amusement aggregation known as the Sells-Floto circus yesterday and the majority of those who were fortunate enough to attend the performances were unanimous "that it is the cleanest and most satisfactory circus that ever gave an exhibition in Phoenix."

Unlike other shows the entrance was at the door of the menagerie and the price of admission included both the menagerie and the main show. After viewing the different specimens of the animal kingdom the patrons entered the main tent and were shown by courteous ushers to their seats and punctually to the minute the grand march past of the performers was started. The Royal Scottish Kiltie band of the Forty-eighth Highlanders regiment of Toronto, Canada were in the lead and the soul stirring strains of the bag pipes evoked rounds of applause. Mile. Zorah's elephants are trained to perfection and the ragging of the pachyderm was the funniest thing seen for a long time. Rhoda Royals horses are the best collection of equine sagacity ever brought together. Captain Devlin and his band of Zouaves performed military maneuvers with a precision that was uncanny and machine like.

It was reported on good authority yesterday that Colonel William Cody, better known as Buffalo Bill, had signed a contract with the Sells-Floto company, and will join that company with his wild west show next season. This union should result in a circus second to none and if the
